TOUR DE YORKSHIRE 2020

› History of the race

The Tour de Yorkshire is a young race - only six years old in 2020 - but since its launch in 2015 it has grown to become one of the world's best-supported races. Last year 2 million fans lined the route over the three stages - that's enough to fill more than 22 Wembley Stadiums!

HOW IS THE RACE SET UP?

The Tour de Yorkshire was set up as a legacy of the 2014 Tour de France, which actually started in Yorkshire, not France! Tour de France director Christian Prudhomme described it as the "grandest of Grand Departs" and plans were immediately made to bring a new race to the county as there was clearly so much support for professional cycling. The Tour de Yorkshire was born and is jointly organised by Welcome to Yorkshire, the tourism body for the county, and the A.S.O., who are the owners of the Tour de France.

THE STORY SO FAR

The first Tour de Yorkshire in 2015 saw riders travel from Bridlington to Scarborough over a very hilly route on stage one; the second stage was flatter, going between Selby and York, and the third day saw riders start in Wakefield and travel to Roundhay Park in Leeds. Team Sky's Norwegian rider Lars Petter Nordhaug won the first stage and managed to defend his lead over the next two days to claim the blue jersey (not yellow like the Tour de France). More info: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/2016\_Tour\_de\_Yorkshire

In 2018 yet further conquering strides were taken; the men's race moved from three days to four and the women's from a two day race to a three day race.

LOOKING FORWARD TO 2020

The 2020 edition takes place between 30 April - 3 May; the Asda Tour de Yorkshire women's race will take place on Friday 1st and Saturday 2nd May over the exact same course as the men's stage which takes place later that day. The stages for the sixth edition are as follows:

Stage 1

The Yorkshire Coast Stage
Beverley › Redcar

Stage 2

The Three Peaks Stage
Skipton › Leyburn

Stage 3

The Heritage Stage
Barnsley › Huddersfield

Stage 4

The Yorkshire Classic
Halifax › Leeds

› The 2020 women's race

The Asda Tour de Yorkshire Women's Race meanwhile, will take place between 1 - 2 May meaning that for the first time ever, it will be held on a Friday and Saturday to allow more people to celebrate the race. Further new ground is also being broken by the fact both stages will be exactly the same as the men's, meaning the 2019 edition will be the longest yet at 264km and also the hardest with over of 3,200m of cumulative climbing.

› The route

The route of the Tour de Yorkshire takes in the beauty of the County, from the twists and turns of the country lanes to the hustle and bustle of the ever-expanding city centres. The start and finish points always attract large crowds. Steep climbs are hot spots for spectators. Street parties and gatherings outside schools and community spaces, seamlessly link the beginning and end of each stage.

The combination of the bike race and the beauty of Yorkshire attracts spectators from all over the world.

DESIGN YOUR OWN ROUTE

The route of the Tour de Yorkshire is designed to challenge the riders and to make the race exciting to watch, it is also a great opportunity to showcase the amazing scenery of Yorkshire. Your challenge is to design your own stage route for the Tour. Where would it start and finish? And what would the challenges be along the way?

► The 2020 men's race

The sixth edition of the men's race will take place between 30 April - 3 May and has been upgraded to HC status by cycling's world governing body the Union Cycliste Internationale (UCI) - the highest category possible for a multi-day race outside of the UCI WorldTour. It encompasses all four corners of the county and takes in 150 villages, towns and cities along the way.
