Reading

Read your reading book to a grown up. How many tricky words can you find?
Can you find any rhyming words in your book?

Afternoon 1

Talk with a grown up at home about the importance of not talking to strangers. Talk about safe strangers such as the police who are there to help us. Make a poster to show what you should do if someone who you don't know tries to talk to you.

Afternoon 2

Make a wolf mask using some paper, card or a paper plate. Act out the story with the rest of your family.

Afternoon 3

Little Red Riding Hood took some treats for her Grandma. Bake some treats with an adult at home for the rest of your family to enjoy.

Afternoon 4

Can you make a book of Little Red Riding Hood by folding some paper in half. Draw the characters and label what is happening in the story.

Afternoon 5

Make your own forest for Little Red Riding Hood to walk through.

Join one of the EYFS teachers daily at 2pm for a story. Keep an eye on your email for an invitation.

Reading

Read your reading book to a grown up. Can you predict what happens at the end of the story? Is a happy or sad ending?

Afternoon 6

Play a board game with your family. Practice your counting whilst moving your counter.

Afternoon 7

Go on a sound hunt with your family. What sounds did you hear on your walk? Can you make up your own bear hunt story with the sounds you heard?

Afternoon 8

With a grown up,

research real bears using the internet, books etc.
Can you remember 3 facts that you have found out to share with your teacher and the rest of your class?

Afternoon 9

Make an invitation to invite the rest of your family to join you on your bear hunt. You might want to choose a different animal to hunt for.

Afternoon 10

Watch the We're going on a bear hunt video. Make your own actions/dance to tell the story.
