

The Masked Reader

Are you great at listening to clues? 🔍

Do you enjoy a good story? 📖

Do you think you know your teacher really well? 💬

Well, then the masked reader is the competition for you!!

Every week, once a week, there will be a video posted onto the school website and social pages for you to watch, listen and detect clues.

We have a staff book club at school, because believe or not but reading is the cool thing to do! Teachers actually love reading children's stories and we want you to guess who is reading what!

All you have to do is watch the video and listen carefully. 👁️ 👁️

BUT be warned, their voices and faces are disguised... 🧑

So, think about the clues they introduce themselves with; think carefully about the way they read; think really carefully about the words and description you hear...

Once you think you know who the member of staff is and maybe even the book, they are reading then click the link Microsoft Forms to submit your answers and enter the competition!

Please ask your parents/guardians to help you with this! 📝

There will be an opportunity to watch and listen in assemblies too and guess in your classes.

For those of you with EXCELLENT detective skills, and who have submitted their answers on Microsoft Forms, there will be prizes awarded at the end of term, so get watching and thinking.
